

Responsibility

Hello Parents and Guardians,

Welcome to Unit 5 of our Kindness in the Classroom curriculum. For the next 4-6 weeks we will be learning all about RESPONSIBILITY. Since this is still a fairly new concept for children this age, we will focus on the following topics:

TOPIC	QUESTIONS WE WILL EXPLORE	HOW YOU CAN HELP AT HOME
Responsibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What does it mean to be responsible for your actions?</li><li>• How do you accept responsibility for what you say and what you do?</li></ul>	Create a list of school and home responsibilities with your child. Emphasize how their responsibilities actually help their class. What are they responsible for at home? Explore that as well! .
Teamwork	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How do we respond to others?</li><li>• How can we use kindness to respond in a kind way, no matter what?</li><li>• Why is being kind such an important responsibility?</li></ul>	Discuss the importance of responding kindly to others, even during difficult situations. If possible, identify some tough scenarios and practice responding kindly.
Self-Discipline	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What is self-discipline?</li><li>• How do we use self control in our classroom?</li><li>• What might happen if we didn't stay in control of ourselves?</li></ul>	Talk with your child about what self-discipline looks like in their class. How do we sit in our chairs/at the table? How do we answer a question? How do we move through the building? Emphasize kind, safe actions.

Key activities we'll be doing:

- Organize personal space at school!
- Explore community based responsibility!
- Recycle to take responsibility of waste!
- Create Kindness coupons!

TRY THIS AT HOME!

Ask your child how they organized their space in their classroom. Work with them to organize their room/part of the room. Once completed, take a picture to remind them what it looks like when they are being responsible for their home space.

If you have any questions about our Kindness in the Classroom lessons, please feel free to contact me at any time. We are on this kindness path together!

Sincerely,
